Twenty-one Students Attend 'UN' Meeting

A model United Nations with Dr. Ralph Bunch, Nobel Peace Prize winner for 1950, participating, was set up by college students during the First Pacific Coast Conference on United Nations' Affairs, April 26 to 28, inclusive, at Stanford university, Palo Alto, California.

Delegates were sent from the universities, colleges, junior colleges, and agricultural schools of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona and Nevada. Several hundred students, faculty members and guests attended the three-day conference. Those attending from Oregon College of Education were Larry and Diane Bell, Ruth Bartle, Beverly Watson, Emil Perkins, Kay Smale, David Simons, Harold Briggs, Norman George, Joe Cole, Helen Stevens, Mary Swart, Mary Campynol, Evelyn Claussen, Beverly Briem, Robert Link, Bob Norton, Jim Spear, Ray Vandervort, Eugene Blair, Miss Ruth Carter and Mr. John Carter.

Meetings of the General Assembly, Security Council, Economic and Social Commissions were held, with Dr. Bunch presiding over the General Assembly on Saturday, April 28.

Each college delegation represented a country of the United Nations and conducted its conference business within the views of that particular country.

Among the guest speakers other than Dr. Bunch were Dr. Wallace (Continued on Page Two)

Yell king: Don Cowan, Dallas; Bill Bear, Turner; and Eugene Smith, Noti. Song queen: Gail Snow, Rainier; Helen Stevens, Portland; and Mary Ann Hudson, Clatskanie.

Eugene Blair Selected As Financial Secretary

Eugene Blair has recently been appointed financial secretary of the OCE student body for the school year of 1951-52. He replaces Ted Shorack, who is currently acting in this capacity.

The student council chose him, after careful consideration of a number of worthy students, because of his previous experience along the line.

The office of financial secretary is a paid position and entails a great deal of work.

Religious Emphasis Week on the Agenda

The first week of May has been set aside as Religious Emphasis Week on this campus and on May 2, 3 and 4, the students are planning a Religion and Life Institute.

The opening address will be given in Campbell hall auditorium, 11 o'clock classes will be excused. The speaker will be P. Malcolm Hammond, professor of philosophy at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, and minister of the Grace Methodist church, Portland. His subject will be "Religion in Our World."

There will be two meetings on Thursday, both held in Campbell hall auditorium. The morning meeting will be held at 10:25, 10 o'clock classes will meet immediately after the assembly. The guest speaker will be the Reverend Robert Beh, Catholic priest from the University of Portland. Topic for this meeting is to be "The Church's Contribution to Religious Life." The evening session will be held at 8:00 and townspeople are invited to attend. Gene Robinson of the First Christian church of LaGrande will be the speaker. Music will be presented by the girls' sextet.

Friday a general assembly will be held from 9:25 to 9:50 a.m. Subject will be "The Teacher's Opportunities for Spiritual Guidance." It will be presented by the Reverend Arthur Stanley, executive director of the Portland Council of Churches.

Prom Queen Will Be Chosen in Election

The Junior Prom is getting closer, fellows. Be sure to get a date for May 12. Glen Woodrey's eight-piece orchestra will play. Also featured will be a vocalist. The price is 50 cents per person with a student body card. Tickets will be on sale May 9, 10 and 11 in Campbell hall.

The prom queen will be chosen in a general student election on May 2 and 3, the same time as the primary election for student body officers. Candidates are: LaVae Griffith and Peggy Scott, representing the freshman class; Barbee Sherman, representing the sophomores; Marcia Berry, from the junior class; with the senior's choice being Shirley Oliver.

Children's Clinic To Be Held in Dallas

The semi-annual crippled children's clinic will be held at the Presbyterian church in Dallas, on Monday, May 14.

This clinic is sponsored by the Oregon Crippled Children's Division of the University of Oregon Medical School.

An orthopedic specialist conducts the clinic and gives diagnostic and consultative service on all types of crippling conditions of children. Information and appointments may be secured by calling the Polk county Health Department at Dallas. There is no charge for the service of this clinic.

Notice! Hood Climbers!

Will the 30 people who are climbing Mt. Hood this coming week-end, please attend the meeting at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 1, in CH 110. Important!

Please bring the money that is necessary for obtaining your equipment and your boots for the purpose of having crampons fitted to your boot size.

Annual Conference Held Here Saturday

Saturday, April 28, brought many noted educators to Monmouth and OCE in connection with the annual Oregon College Conference on Elementary Education.

Guest speakers were: Dr. Nelson L. Bossing, professor of education at the University of Minnesota; Dr.

Stewart B. Hamblen, field consultant for the Sloan Foundation of New York; and Mrs. Natalie Cole, famous art professor and author. Oregon educators, Dr. Rex Putman, who is state superintendent of instruction and Adolph A. Sandin of the University of Oregon also appeared.

A meeting for discussion on the selection of future teachers was presented by Eugene Silke, superintendent of the Springfield schools; Harold T. Santee, principal of Franklin high school in Portland; Martha Shull of Jefferson high in Portland; and Mathilda Gilles, principal of Richmond school in Salem.

Dr. Bossing and Dr. Hugh B. Wood, executive secretary of the Oregon branch of the Northwest Society for Curriculum Development, presided at the annual dinner and college resident meetings.

An address of welcome was made by OCE's president, Dr. Roben J. Maaske at the 9:45 a.m. general assembly in Campbell hall to open the conference program.

Dr. Bossing addressed the conference on "False Assumptions in Education." "Schools and Better Living" was the topic of Dr. Stewart Hamblen's talk.

OCE's choir and band presented several numbers. Mrs. Denise Murray of the music staff, sang.

Sectional meetings began at 2:00 p.m. after a no-host luncheon in the (Continued on Page Two)

Student Union Plans Considered at Council

The regular meeting of the student council was called to order by Paul Lee, president of the associated students, on Monday, April 16. Paul announced that Miss Ruth Carter had been presented with a letter of invitation to the Collegiate Conference for United Nations at Stanford university. The council voted to allocate $17.50 to send five delegates to represent OCE at this conference.

A report on the Student Union Board activities was given by Dr. Roben J. Maaske, Miss Carter and Ellis A. Stebbins. Future plans for the improvement of this building were discussed, including the building of a coffee shop, lowering the ceiling, installing a window and adding a book store. It was announced that a stamp machine is to be installed immediately.

The revised athletic activities budget was presented by Bob Norton and Dr. Maaske. Following a discussion it was voted that the budget be accepted as presented.

Bob reported on the plans for student elections. The polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on May 2 and 3. Student body cards are to be presented at the time of voting. (Continued on Page Two)

Demonstration Held

A demonstration debate was featured at an assembly on Wednesday, April 25, in Campbell hall auditorium at 11 o'clock. Members of the debate squad taking part were Mary McConnell, Helen Taylor, Keith Holdorf and Walter Reid. The question discussed was "Resolved: That the non-communist nations should form a new international organization."

'Ali Baba' To Be Given May 9-11

The coming attraction, "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves," under the direction of George Harding, will be presented on May 9 and May 11 in Campbell hall auditorium. This play, as written by Lillian and Robert Masters, is being produced by special arrangement with The Children's Theatre Press of Anchorage, Kentucky. The all-school cast includes: Reader, Eleanor Fulmore; Ali Baba, Ford Forster and Byron Hindman; Talib, Helen Taylor and Laurice Bohler; Ameer, George TenEyck and Harry Jahneke; Cassim, Jim Elliott and Tom Dick Harry; Samad, Margaret Kaady and Virginia Pomante; Morgiana, Kay Smale and LaVae Griffith; Mustapha, Frank Ross and Mel Peterson; Abdul Hassan, Elmer Spencer and George Turner; Little Donc, John Pizzuti; Tamara, Rosina Yoder; Goya, Helen Zvarich; Seyma, Betty Lou Robertson; Prujay, Henrietta Johnson; and two thieves, Willis Marrison and Milford Barnes.

Assistant directors are Walter Reid and Margot Burridge. Mr. Reid is also supervisor of committees. Adelaide Alberti is prompter. Committee chairmen are as follows: Phyllis Adams, properties; Myrna Mohr, make-up; Willis Love, stage; Lela Beach, costumes; Wanda Nelson, sound; and George TenEyck, publicity.

Application Forms Must Be in May 4

All students who seek admission to the teacher training program or to supervised teaching in the fall quarter of 1951 are requested to complete the necessary application forms and submit them to the education office not later than May 4. Applicants for admission to teacher training must have completed a minimum of 30 quarter hours of college work and passed a speech and health examination.

Applicants for supervised teaching are required to complete the achievement and speech tests, the health examination, course prerequisites and scholarship requirements.

Arrangements for speech tests have been made by George Harding for April 23 through May 2. The health office will announce the date and time for scheduling of health examinations.

Forms for the above application may be secured from the education office in room 116 of the Administration building.

Postl Judges Papers

On Saturday, April 28, Mr. Anton Postl, assistant professor of science at OCE, served as one of the judges for papers presented to the chemistry section of the Oregon Student Science Conference. The conference was held on the OSC campus.

Oregon College Is Residuary Legatee in Will Of Grant Wolverton, a Graduate of Class of '85

Oregon College of Education has been named the residuary legatee in the will of the late Grant S. Wolverton of Portland, according to word received by Dr. Roben J. Maaske, president of OCE, from Elton Watkins, Portland attorney.

The will provides that the bequest be used to establish a swimming pool and recreational facilities on the campus of OCE. The will also provides that "the expenditures and application of this bequest be within the sole control and pursuant to the judgment of the president of Oregon College of Education," and Clarice L. Mackey and Grace Leto Daniel, nieces of Mr. Wolverton, now resident in Portland.

This project is directed to be established as a memorial to John and Mary Jane Wolverton, parents of Grant S. Wolverton, who were long time residents of Monmouth. Their former family home is now the Music building on the campus of OCE.

Mr. Grant S. Wolverton lived in Monmouth with his parents and received his schooling here. He attended the old Christian college and graduated in the first class from Oregon State Normal school in 1885. He was 87 years old at the time of his death in Portland (4155 SE Evergreen) on April 13, 1951.

While the amount of the residuary bequest accruing to the college will not be known definitely until completion of the will probate, expected in six to seven months, it is likely to be a substantial amount, according to Dr. Maaske.

THINK BEFORE CASTING YOUR VOTE

Now is an important time of the year for students contemplating a return to this institution next fall. What kind of student government will there be here to govern the activities of the students? With coming elections, it is important for all of us to consider what kind of people we would like to have representing us next year.

Unfortunately, there will be many students who cast blind votes, with no thought whatsoever as to whether the persons for whom they vote are properly qualified or have the necessary characteristics which denote leadership. Friendship is many times blind, and this being so, many people will cast their votes for those who have no qualifications other than being a good friend or buddy.

There will be those who will vote for persons whom they feel will do the most for them, personally. There will be those who do not vote at all! Those who abstain from voting are probably the same ones who always have a gripe about student officials. How can we blame poor student officers when the responsibility might well rest with unwise voters?

The vote that is cast by a student in the student body elections acts as his voice in student government. It is most important in this respect that we think for ourselves before casting our vote. Let's make sure that next year's student body officers are the best possible choices, and above all, let's all vote when the time comes!

Council Hears Final Athletic Budget Data

At the regular meeting of the Student Council, Monday evening, April 16, Bob Norton, athletic commissioner, presented a final revision of the athletic activities budget for 1951-51. The operating budget for this year shows a small deficit of $390.95, but this may be reduced somewhat before the end of the year. This is a reduction from the operating estimated deficit of $646.92 on the budget prepared by the student council earlier this year.

The detailed budget is too lengthy to print here, however any student may see a copy of it in the student body office in Campbell hall. A summary of estimated expenditures and receipts follows:

Summary of Expenditures:

Football	$7,245.62
Basketball	2,133.94
Baseball	1,088.50
Track	513.33
Spring football	50.00
Tennis, men	206.92
Women's athletic activities	347.33
Total Expenditures	$11,585.64

Summary of Receipts:

Fee income (less refunds and federal tax)	$8,229.40
Football	1,872.59
Basketball	992.70
Baseball
Track	50.00
Spring football	50.00
Tennis, men
Women's ath. activities
Total Receipts	$11,194.69
Estimated operating deficit	$390.95
The OCE athletic activities budget had a considerable deficit as of last July 1, 1950, and it is planned to repay this deficit over a period of several years through careful planning and budgeting.

Smith Wins Records

Gene Smith won the record album offered as a reward by the square dance club for a name for the organization. Gene's suggestion "The D'OCE Do Gang," was chosen as best from a large variety of suggestions. Bob Waterman awarded the prize to Gene at intermission at a square dance party on Thursday, April 19.

The party was very successful and everyone had a good time. Calling and instructing were done by members of the club.

The D'OCE Do'ers met on Thursday evening, April 26, in the gym with the Tanglefooters, local square dance club, as their guests.

A group from the local club, accompanied by Mrs. Faye Knox and Mrs. Oma McBee, attended the folk dance festival in the Eugene armory on Sunday, April 22. Dance demonstrations were given by clubs from all over Oregon.

Test Information Given

College men who are interested in taking the national tests and applying for temporary deferment from the draft, may get detailed information about the tests and applications from Matthew R. Thompson, veterans' adviser. He has some Selective Service bulletins with reference to the matter.

Eligibility Listed

Students who qualify for supervised teaching under one of the four categories described below and who wish to have their applications considered must complete the proper application form and return it to the education office not later than April 30. Applications will be considered in order of priority.

Priority A—Students who will fulfill requirements for a three year diploma or a four year degree at the close of the summer session.

Priority B—Experienced teachers holding an emergency certificate, who could meet requirements for a regular certificate by attending the summer session.

Priority C—Students holding a degree from an accredited institution, plus 12 hours of education, who could qualify for an emergency certificate by attending the summer session.

Priority D—Students previously admitted to supervised teaching but who could not complete requirements for a degree or diploma by attending the summer session.

Theta Delta Phi Has Thirteen Initiates

Thirteen men, one of the largest groups to be initiated in several years, became members of Theta Delta Phi at a formal initiation ceremony at Maple hall on Friday evening, April 20. This swells the membership of the fraternity to 57 and insures the society of having a strong nucleus for next year.

New members this term are Wallace Aho, William Bear, Eugene Blair, Verne Buhler, Larry Dawson, Bill Gunderson, James Hastings, Peter Johnson, William Lewellen, Bob Orcutt, Archie Padberg, Emil Perkins and John Pizzuti. Congratulations and a warm welcome are extended to these men on behalf of Theta Delta Phi.

Annual Conference

physical education building. Dr. Adolph Sandin addressed the upper grade teachers and administrators on "Ingredients of a Good School," in the Monmouth elementary school auditorium, with George Corwin of District 13-C presiding.

Mrs. Natalie Cole discussed art for primary teachers under the title "Let Them Create." This discussion was held in Campbell hall as was a later discussion titled "And So They Grow" for intermediate and upper grade teachers. Portland Art Supervisor Miss Ruth Halvorsen, presided at both discussions.

School legislation in the 1951 session was discussed by Dr. Rex Putnam, with Frank B. Bennett, Salem school superintendent, presiding.

Springfield superintendent, Eugene Silke, led a group discussion on the problems of student selection for teacher training.

An informal coffee hour with the Associated Women Students as hosts was held in Maple hall at 4:00 p.m.

Conference activities closed with the annual joint dinner meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, Phi Delta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta. Dr. G. A. Howard, president emeritus of OCE, presided with Dr. Hamblen as the major speaker of the evening.

"Education for Community Living" was his topic. The dinner session was held in Todd hall at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Emma Henkle, chairman of special education at OCE, served as general chairman for the conference. She was assisted by Mrs. Pearl B. Heath of the art department and by Mrs. Lorna Jessup, director of dormitories. Staff members and department heads assisted in arranging the program.

Six Are Pledged By Staff & Key

A week ago Tuesday, Staff and Key, women's service honorary, tapped six girls for membership. The members met at 6:30 in the student post office and then departed to locate the new pledges. At the dorm, they found Twilo Tabler and Leslie Furer in Twilo's room. President Shirley Oliver pinned the girls with green and yellow pledge ribbons and asked them to join in the search for the rest of the girls. Vernona Vance, Lela Beach and Helen Zvarich were each found in their rooms, but Arlene Elshoff led the girls a merry chase. She wasn't in her room so they looked all over Campbell hall. A couple of times, they caught a glimpse of her going around a corner, but when they got there, she was nowhere to be seen. They finally did trace her to Todd hall though, and found her in her room brushing her teeth. The six pledges accompanied the members to Maple hall where they entertained with a skit and each one sang a song or gave a reading.

Informal initiation was held last Tuesday evening in the music room of Todd hall at 8:30. At this time the pledges read their 200 word themes and received their "bibles" concerning pledge duties and then on Thursday night the pledges entertained the patrons of Maple hall with a skit.

Sunday, April 29, was the date of the beach trip and picnic with Collecto Coeds, and next Wednesday, May 2, the formal initiation ceremony will be held in the Todd hall music room at 5:30 p.m. This will be followed by the traditional banquet at the Monmouth Hotel.

The Barn Dance is over now, but recognition should go to the committee chairmen for their work. They were: Jan Crenshaw and D'Anne Brumbaugh, refreshments; Betty Lammi and Colleen Marsh, barn; Kay Smale, transportation; and Lorraine Carlson, Betty Anderson and Shirley Oliver, advertising.

Voice Tests

Voice tests for all students entering teachers' training or supervised teaching summer quarter, 1951, or fall quarter, 1951, will be held during the week of April 23 to May 2. Instructions and time will be posted on the English department's bulletin board. This will be the last time these tests will be given this quarter.

Attend 'UN' Meeting

Sterling, president of Stanford university, and Clark Eichelberger, Executive Director of the American Association for the United Nations.

The agenda consisted of four items with sub-topics. First was the Korean problem; Chinese representation in the UN; reconstruction; legal and social aspects; naming the aggressor; and Formosa. Second item concerned Yugoslavia; satellite status; relation to Russia; relations with other satellite nations. Third item on the program was the emergency situation and under it was meetings of the previously mentioned agencies.

The fourth item served a dual purpose: a reception for foreign students and a debate on "World Federalism," including the pro and con of UN power to tax, and to control armies.

Counterbalancing the serious program, were lighter activities such as a water carnival, entertainment by foreign students at their reception and an evening off for sight-seeing. The conference was also televised.

The story of Oregon—its discoverers, explorers and settlers—has been put on wheels and will be seen in Monmouth on Saturday, May 5, and Sunday, May 6.

Many priceless objects are in this traveling museum which has been sponsored as a public service by the United States National bank, in observance of its 60th anniversary. The Oregon Historical Caravan will give the people an opportunity to see and understand the social, economic and geographic development of Oregon. There is no admission charge.

Pep Club Letters Are To Be Ordered Soon

Plans for a big party sponsored by the Pep club were discussed at a recent meeting, so watch for further developments.

Letters for Pep club members are to be ordered soon. Lucille Goyak and Mary Ann Hudson are in charge of ordering the letters and will do so as soon as enough orders are given them.

The constitution is now being amended and it is hoped this revised constitution will be put into full swing next year.

Several of the Pep club members helped the Wolf Knights as guides during Senior Week-end.

Student Union Plans

A student body list will be checked as the voting takes place. Bob appointed Ted Shorack as chairman of the election board.

At the meeting of the council on Monday, April 23, President Lee reported that a receipt had been received for OCE's contribution to the Japan International Christian University Foundation, Inc.

Art Sperber, junior class president, presented a petition for the Junior-Senior Prom. The council accepted the petition and the suggestion was made that adequate publicity be given to promote this dance.

A petition from Staff and Key for their Barn Dance on Saturday, April 28, was presented by Betty Anderson. This petition, also, was approved.

Miss Patricia Tiggard, a representative of the World Student Service Fund, was on our campus on Wednesday, April 25. Mabel McKenzie was appointed by the council to act as Miss Tiggard's guide while she was here.

A tentative date of May 18 to May 20 was set for the Council's Spring Retreat.

House News

West House Women Entertain Visitors

Marcia Berry's mother from Provo, Utah, is visiting her daughter at West House.

Willola Kelly celebrated her birthday this past week at her home near Astoria.

Thrilled receiver of a dozen beautiful red roses was Doris Johnson. They are on display in her room. Lawrence Anderson surprised Doris with a visit last week. He was on a leave from Maryland where he is stationed with the U.S. navy.

All sorts of animals of various sizes and descriptions can be found residing at the house. In fact, no free living creature is safe. The cricket caught under the bathtub by one of the girls will verify that.

TODD TATTLINGS

There have been several birthday anniversaries celebrated at Todd hall in the last few weeks. Among them were those of Helen Van Hine, Beverly Briem, Annetta Grove and Cathy Miller.

Todd hall is becoming quite populated with animals. Twilo Tabler and Beverly Mulholland have two hamsters and Ardith Scroggins, Joy Kuiken and Jan Rollier have guinea pigs.

Wolf Knight Members Now Number Nineteen

The four new members of Wolf Knights are Dick Balch, Eugene Smith, Verne Buhler and Ray Vandervort. This brings the club to 19.

Six of the members are happy seniors. They are Chuck Humble, Homer Olfert, John Herbert, Ted Shorack, Jack Graham and Lewis Holt. Junior members of the organization are Art Sperber, Merlin Marsh, George Watts, Harold Howard and Dick Vanderzanden. John Robinson, Don Kipp, Les Dehart, Sid Stuller, Dick Balch and Ray Vandervort are sophomores and two of the new members, Eugene Smith and Verne Buhler, are freshmen.

Reed Dancers Guests Of Orchesis Group

Members of the Reed college modern dance group, under the direction of Miss Colleen Cook, were guests of Orchesis last Wednesday evening.

The OCE and Reed groups worked out basic fundamentals together and then Miss Cook gave a lesson in the different techniques of hand drumming. This was very valuable to the group as percussion instruments lend themselves nicely to modern dance.

Miss Cook and her dancers, including two fellows, gave three dances for OCE members. They gave their version of a French court dance known as the "Gavotte," and a modern Jewish folk number. One of the men presented a solo, "Prologue to a Greek Tragedy," in which he used extremely difficult vertical leaps.

After the meeting the Reed college guests were invited to Maple hall for refreshments.

The next event for the OCE Modern Dance club will be a trip to Corvallis for Oregon State's annual modern dance program entitled "Salute to Rhythm." There will be transportation for those interested in going on the evening of May 4.

OSEA Potluck Tuesday

We were too busy to hold a meeting on our regular night in April. Now we're still busier, but let's relax for a couple of hours. Tuesday, May 1, at 6 p.m. the OCE chapter of the Oregon State Employees Association is sponsoring a potluck dinner for state employees and their families in the cafeteria of the Monmouth elementary school. Mrs. Leone Miller is chairman of the committee. Bring the family, and food — a hot dish, salad or dessert. The committee will provide rolls, coffee and the fixin's. Let's make up for lost time.

Inter-Varsity Appoints New Committee Heads

Gary Risher, Youth for Christ leader from Dallas, spoke to the IVCF group Monday night. Before speaking, he played two accordin numbers "At Calvary" and "Beyond the Sunset." Keith Holdorf played a marimba solo "A Perfect Day." Donna Lee Young led the group singing.

New chairmen for the Inter-Varsity committees were introduced. They are: Susan Moberg, social committee; Loraine Carlson, librarian; Violet Wooten and Keith Ahrenkiel, prayer committee; Mel Hart, missionary committee; Ronald Camp, "His" committee; Helen Stewart, alumni; Josephine Miller, publicity.

Next Inter-Varsity meeting will be held on May 14.

Eight Wesley Members Attend Camp Magruder

Among the many sunburnt faces seen on campus last week, eight of them were the result of the Wesley Retreat held at Camp Magruder, April 20-22. There were 260 college students present from all the Oregon colleges.

The speaker was Bayard Rustin whose topic was "The Social Aspect of the Christian Law of Love." Besides a good speaker, wonderful food and weather, those who went will remember the good times on the beach and around the late evening campfires. Those who went from OCE were Frank Ross, Keith Holdorf, Carroll Johnston, Barbee Sherman, Rosina Yoder, Jane Gardner, and Leroy Prink.

Wesley elected new officers at the meeting on April 22, following a talk by Dr. Victor Sword of Salem. Those elected were: Rosina Yoder, president; Jane Gardner, vice-president; Barbara Pfund, secretary; and Frank Ross, treasurer. These officers were installed Sunday, April 29. An open-house at Reverend Pogue's home in Independence followed the installation services.
